DESIGN SCHOOL, 3–5 MARCH 2010

DEMENTIA SERVICES DEVELOPMENT CENTRE, NORTHERN IRELAND OFFICE, BELFAST

The design and dementia school will cover a range of design issues including effective commissioning, project management, designing the internal and external environment and lighting. The school will provide both theoretical and practical input over three days and will involve lectures, workshops and discussion groups. It will also include guidance on using the DSDC's design audit tool as a reference text for the design process.

Drawing on international research and best practice, the course will introduce delegates to the audit process, and its role in ensuring that architectural drawings and building spaces are suitable for the use of people with dementia. Delegates will receive a copy of Design for People with Dementia: Audit Tool and Best Practice in Design for People with Dementia.

Speakers at the event will include:

- Professor June Andrews, Director, DSDC
- Colm Cunningham, Director of Operations, DSDC
- Fred Currell, Derbyshire County Council
- Clifford McClenaghan, Associate Architect, DSDC

- Maria McManus, Associate Director, DSDC
- David McNair, Director of Lighting, DSDC
- Annie Pollock, Director of Landscape Design and Architecture, DSDC

The programme will include:

3 March

- understanding design in the context of dementia – theory and practice
- interior and exterior core design principles
- what if we get the environment wrong
- the service user view

4 March

- why does light matter?
- drawings and lighting workshops
- project management

5 March

- using the design audit tool in practice*
- making change happen workshop
