Call for Poster Abstracts

INVOLVING OLDER PEOPLE: MEANINGS AND METHODS

The organising group of BSG Scotland invites the submission of abstracts related to any aspect of Gerontological research for presentation as a poster at the Conference to be held in the Iris Murdoch Building, University of Stirling on 14th June 2010.

Poster presentations will again constitute a major part of this year's Conference, with a two-hour slot being allocated to poster sessions at which all authors will be present. Abstracts submitted will be reviewed and themes identified. Selected authors will be invited to speak to their posters during the two-hour session. They will also be invited to submit an extended abstract to be offered as a handout and published on the website. A discussant will be appointed to facilitate discussion around each theme. There will be prizes for the best posters (first prize £50, second prize £25).

Submission of abstracts:

Abstracts should be no more than 250 words and should be submitted in a structured format using the following guidelines:

Background: Rationale for the study, the objectives and the main hypothesis or research questions.

Methods: Description of the design of the study, number of participants, materials employed, and the procedures followed.

Results: The main findings and conclusions that can be drawn from the study.

Abstracts, which should include author's/ authors' affiliation and contact details, must be received by Friday 17th May 2010. Abstracts should be submitted electronically to Dr Pauline Banks pauline.banks@uws.ac.uk Tel: 01698 283100

BSG SCOTLAND BURSARIES 2010

Aims

The BSG Scotland bursaries policy aims to facilitate attendance at the BSG Scotland/DSDC conference on 14 June 2010 at the University of Stirling by students, recent postdocs, unwaged or retired people.

Procedure

Bursaries are awarded by the BSG Scotland Bursaries Panel. The budget allocated to bursaries is agreed by the BSG Scotland Organising Group. The Bursaries Panel apportions the budget as it thinks fit taking into account the number of applications submitted. The Bursaries Panel processes the applications and informs the applicants of the outcome within three weeks of the application deadline (17th May 2010).

Bursary award guidelines

- Awards may be made to applicants wishing to attend the BSG Scotland Conference on 14 June 2010, whether they are presenting a poster or are a member of the audience.
- The award will be £25 towards the registration fee.
